Candidates achieve an ILM Level 5 Award in Coaching

Tendring District Council in partnership with NHS PCT chose The Training Team to deliver the ILM Level 5 Coaching and Mentoring programme to 12 senior managers from the organisations.

Whilst this programme is an Institute of Leadership and Management (ILM) Accredited Course the design of the programme was bespoke, covering both strategic and practical elements. The aim of was to assist the partnership gain awareness of how to strategically implement coaching as a practice, covering both structural and cultural elements and in each organisation as well as enable the senior teams practice the specific coaching skills required in their roles as workplace coaches.

The Training Team delivered the 7 day programme, providing ILM External Verification on all Assessments.

As part of the delivery process each manager was able to practice coaching with a Training Team qualified coach. This gave them valuable insights into coaching itself but also enabled them to identify own personal development needs and to put together personal development plans.

The L5 coaching and mentoring course requires each coach to undertake 12 hours of coaching which is then assessed as part of their own individual development and also towards their ILM accreditation.

Due to the success of the Level 5 programme The Training Team were asked to deliver a Level 3 coaching programme for supervisors and managers.

ILM L5 Coaching

A new qualification designed for those managers with a wider responsibility for coaching and mentoring to provide practicing managers with the knowledge, skills and confidence to perform effectively as coaches or mentors as part of their normal work role.

This programme supports managers to facilitate change by nurturing talent, enabling learning and development and encouraging personal growth and career development.

The programme is delivered over 7 days and covers 3 units of study, followed by a further 12 hours practical coaching activity and a Work Based Assignment.

Aimed at Senior and Middle Managers, delivered as an open programme or to groups, covering topical subjects including:

- Understanding coaching and mentoring
- Values, ethics and coaching codes of practice
- Practical coaching skills
- Leadership coaching
- Communications for coaches
- Change Management
- Developing People
- Teams and Teaming

These provide managers with an opportunity to debate and discuss both strategic and practical matters relevant to coaching and exchange ideas, share knowledge and experiences.

During the workshops each manager gets the opportunity to practice coaching and is guided by a TTT Qualified coach. This proves invaluable for each candidate and helps them adopt best practice prior to any formal workplace coaching.
